

JOURNAL from Lt. Michaelis

8 January 45

2 January - Took JIGGER to see OSTRICH for further briefing.

Have made application to Captain Desormeaux to have CATHELIN and LAMBICK transferred from Charenton to Suchet for interrogation. Both of these men were to have been W/T agents for the "JEANNE" organization. Also asked for Mme. HOSATTE, sister of Mme. NEY, who had been transferred to Charenton without our being notified. We want to keep control of all members of the BESEKOW organization while the OSTRICH operation is in progress, for complete security.

4 January - Following meeting at rue Petrarque, Col. Calvert, Col. Rothschild and I visited Col. Conrad to discuss what information concerning the pipeline the agent OSTRICH could take back to Germany. No decision was made by Col. Conrad, and it is my impression that no correct information may be given on the pipeline.

Conference with OSTRICH, JIGGER, Captain Durack, and Col. Rothschild. Briefing of OSTRICH was again the subject.
